LACE UP THOSE SNEAKERS FOR SCIENCE CENTER'S NEXT 21+ EVENT

FOR THE FIRST TIME, HIGHMARK SPORTSWORKS® WILL BE OPEN FOR A NO-KIDS NIGHT!

PITTSBURGH, July 31, 2017 – Lace up those old high top sneakers, slip on some leg warmers, and get ready to get physical at Carnegie Science Center's next no-kids event. 21+ Let's Get Physical happens Friday, August 11, from 6-10 pm. 21+ Night features cash bars, snacks available for purchase, and the chance to experience the exhibits with no kids! Participants also get a discount on laser shows that evening.

The science of physical activity will be on display as attendees navigate the ropes course obstacles or become a human yo-yo at Highmark SportsWorks®. This event is the first time SportsWorks® will be open during a 21+ event. Participants can enjoy the new Ropes Challenge without having to share the course with kids.

Visitors will be able to try pole fitness, presented by Fitness with a Twist, as well as get pointers on scaling a rock wall from Ascend Pittsburgh. Various local fitness centers will provide mini-classes, and local chiropractors will offer on-site screenings.

DJ Solo Dolo will keep the Robot Lounge rocking with music and some lucky guests may even get to take over the DJ booth.

Proper identification is required, and all guests must show ID at the door. Tickets cost $12 in advance and $17 at the door.

21+ Nights are sponsored by PPG and Steel City Media.

About Carnegie Science Center

Carnegie Science Center is dedicated to inspiring learning and curiosity by connecting science and technology with everyday life. By making science both relevant and fun, the Science Center's goal is to increase science literacy in the region and motivate young people to seek careers in science and technology. One of the four Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh, the Science Center is Pittsburgh's premier science exploration destination, reaching more than 700,000 people annually through its hands-on exhibits, camps, classes, and off-site education programs.

About Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh

Established in 1895 by Andrew Carnegie, Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh is a collection of four distinctive museums: Carnegie Museum of Art, Carnegie Museum of Natural History, Carnegie Science Center, and The Andy Warhol Museum. In 2016, the museums reached more than 1.4 million people through exhibitions, educational programs, outreach activities, and special events.
