ENTER THE DANGER ZONE AT SCIENCE CENTER'S NEXT 21+ NIGHT

EXPERIMENT WITH ROCKET LAUNCHES AND COMBUSTION AT 21+ NIGHT DON'T TRY THIS AT HOME

PITTSBURGH, April 13, 2018 — See a 20-foot Tesla Coil firing, try your balance at slacklining, and experiment with rocket launches and combustion at Carnegie Science Center's next 21+ Science After Dark Event. 21+ Night Don't Try This at Home happens on Friday, April 20, from 6-10 pm, and features risky science demonstrations including hydrogen balloon balls of fire, liquid nitrogen bombs, electric chain of pain, and more!

21+ Night features cash bars, snacks available for purchase, and the chance to experience four floors of hands-on exhibits including Highmark SportsWorks® – with no kids! Add on to the adventure by purchasing a ticket to Back to the Future at The Rangos Giant Cinema playing at 9 pm.

Proper identification is required, and all guests must show ID at the door. Tickets cost $12 in advance, and $17 at the door.

21+ Nights are sponsored by UPGRUV, Green Mountain Energy, Miller Lite, Full Pint, and Dos Equis.

For more information and to register, visit CarnegieScienceCenter.org or call 412.237.3400.

About Carnegie Science Center

Carnegie Science Center is dedicated to inspiring learning and curiosity by connecting science and technology with everyday life. By making science both relevant and fun, the Science Center's goal is to increase science literacy in the region and motivate young people to seek careers in science and technology. One of the four Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh, the Science Center is Pittsburgh's premier science exploration destination, reaching more than 700,000 people annually through its hands-on exhibits, camps, classes, and off-site education programs.

Accessibility: Features for All

Carnegie Science Center welcomes all visitors. We work to assist visitors with disabilities in obtaining reasonable and appropriate accommodations, and in supporting equal access to services, programs, and activities. We welcome visitors in wheelchairs on the deck of our USS Requin (SS 481) submarine. Below-deck visits require full mobility. Hearing assistance devices are available for The Rangos Giant Cinema. Please ask when you buy your ticket.

Please note that requests for accommodations should be made at least two weeks prior to your visit. For specific questions about wheelchairs, strollers, or other programmatic or equipment needs, see the ticket counter located on the first floor of the main building or contact Customer Service at 412.237.1641 or info@carnegiesciencecenter.org. Please contact Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh's Accessibility Coordinator with concerns regarding accessibility for visitors with disabilities at the museums. On weekdays, call 412.622.6578 or email accessibility@carnegiemuseums.org.

About Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh

Established in 1895 by Andrew Carnegie, Carnegie Museums of Pittsburgh is a collection of four distinctive museums: Carnegie Museum of Art, Carnegie Museum of Natural History, Carnegie Science Center, and The Andy Warhol Museum. In 2017, the museums reached more than 1.4 million people through exhibitions, educational programs, outreach activities, and special events.
